Parks & Recreation/Arts & Culture Commissions

Vision for Participation

Action Plan 2011

Advocacy/Liaison to the Public:

- Identify ways to inform public about changes and additions
- Reach out to public to share information
- Work to brand Yuma as a destination
- Work to make sure information is available for Stuff to do in Yuma.com
- Develop a timeline for projects that can be shared with the public

Provide Expertise:

- Share knowledge for policy development
- Work to attract more tournaments/events to Yuma
- Provide technical assistance i.e. theatre tech, physical education expertise, youth sports, general knowledge, marketing, area arts resources

Issue Exploration/Constructive Feedback:

- Work to improve community's image of Parks and Recreation
- Have more opportunities to vote on projects
- Engage the public at events, listen for feedback, and share at meetings
- Idea to create fine system for poor sportsmanship at athletic events and develop a fund for future improvements

Active Participation/Volunteer:

- Provide support when needed and asked
- Provide support to make more opportunities for youth i.e. athletics, arts, and activities
