Mad Tiger

United States and Japan | 2015 |
Documentary-Music| English | 82 min|

MAD TIGER follows bandmates Yellow (Kengo Hioki) and Red (Kotaro Tsukada), who have been best friends and business partners for fifteen years as the primary creative forces behind Peeland-Z. Based in New York City and described as a "Japanese Action Comic Punk Band," Peeland-Z combines performance-art and audience participation in their shows, which push the boundaries of madcap acrobatic stage antics. As part of the band, each member must adopt a different, anime-like "Crayola rock" persona. Seeking his own personal fulfillment, Red announces that he will do one final tour with Peeland-Z before quitting the band. In stark contrast to his character's super-positive facade, Yellow tries his best to keep it together, while dealing with emotions of shock, betrayal and abandonment. Channeling universal stories of friendship and pursuit of happiness.
