Presents

Countess Dracula

by Neal Du Brock

Based on Bram Stoker's Dracula character, however fourteen years have passed since Jonathan Harker and Dr. Van Helsing destroyed the dreaded Count. Now - suddenly a mysterious Lady Alucard appears and the blood curdling cycle of events begin anew - only this time the victims are men. Compounding the excitement - Dr. Van Helsing's lovely daughter arrives with the news of her father's violent death - the work of a woman vampire. Adding to the fun is the fact that the same actress plays both of these remarkable women - one malevolently thirsting for survival and the other - with the help of Harker and Dr. Seward - courageously challenging an incredible evil.

Aladdin 1992

Aladdin is a street-urchin who lives in a large and busy town long ago with his faithful monkey friend Abu. When Princess Jasmine gets tired of being forced to remain in the palace that overlooks the city, she sneaks out to the marketplace, where she accidentally meets Aladdin. Under the orders of the evil Jafar (the sultan's advisor), Aladdin is thrown in jail and becomes caught up in Jafar's plot to rule the land with the aid of a mysterious lamp. Legend has it that only a person who is a "diamond in the rough" can retrieve the lamp from the Cave of Wonders. Aladdin might fit that description, but that's not enough to marry the princess, who must (by law) marry a prince.

Disney's
The Little Mermaid, JR.

In a magical underwater kingdom, the beautiful young mermaid Ariel longs to leave her ocean home - and her fins - behind and live in the world above. But first she'll have to defy her father King Triton, make a deal with the evil sea witch Ursula, and convince the handsome Prince Eric that she's the girl whose enchanting voice he's been seeking.
