

Special Event

Saturday, September 22 at 7:00 pm

This one night only concert will feature the best of the best who will compete for a winner takes all cash prize of $5,000! The concert will be hosted by Mark Flint and will feature performances by Yuma's very own Checkr'd Past! The event will also feature youth performances presented by Jam University. Battle of the Bands presented by the Yuma Art Center with support from AEA Federal Credit Union, BMC Productions, Checkr'd Past, Fretworks, Jam University, and Wheezy's.

Competing bands include:

A Great Disgrace, Switchblade Mary, The Conners, The Raging Hyenas & Typha

Tickets are reserved seating, $15 for stage seating and $10 Balcony and floor seating. All ages are welcome to attend and tickets are available at www.YumaShowTickets.com or at any City of Yuma ticketing outlets.

Tribute of the Muses Call for Nominations

2018 Tribute of the Muses Award Nominations

This distinguished award recognizes an outstanding member of Yuma's arts community who has shown exemplary devotion and excellence in the arts. Nominees may reflect acknowledged excellence in a chosen arts field, arts advocacy, philanthropy and/or arts education. Please note that nominees should have a minimum of 5 years of arts recognition in Yuma. City of Yuma's Parks and Recreation employees are not eligible to be nominated.

The Tribute of the Muses Award is presented by the City of Yuma during the annual awards ceremony and celebration on October 12, 2018 at the Yuma Art Center. The honoree of Nominations close at 5:00 pm on September 5th, 2018.

Nomination forms available at www.YumaArtCenter.com.

Theater

Rare Breed

Saturday, September 1, 6 pm to 8 pm
FREE TO ATTEND & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
"Rare Breed" is a documentary that explores a day in the life of Alex Dees, one of the few African-American livestock ranchers in the world who helped to establish the Brangus Breed of cattle. Mr. Dees recounts his years of experience in the cattle industry and how he had to endure severe economic challenges, racial discrimination, and family.

Bye Bye Germany

Thursdays at the Theatre
Film Screening
Thursday, September 6, 7pm
Germany / 2017 / German & English with English subtitles / 102 min / Comedy-Drama
"The best German-language film Joe and Ethan Coen never made." – Sherilyn Connelly, SF Weekly
$5 general admission, Students $2.50 w/valid ID

Gallery

Exhibit Aug 17 - Oct 13

Featuring works by:
Yulissa Aladana
Tania Bolin
Scott Leinbach
Mea Flores
Ambar Muñoz
Judy Phillips
Arlene Towne
Linda Willets
Nancy Worden

Exhibit:

On display through October 13
Featuring works by:

Yulissa Aladana	Judy Phillips
Tonia Bolin	Arlene Towne
Mea Flores	Linda Willets
Scott Leinbach	Nancy Worden
Ambar Munoz

Classes

Youth Drawing

Session I: September 20 – October 25
Day: Thursdays
Time: 4:30 pm – 5:45 pm
Age: 8 – 15; All supplies included.

Designed to give students a foundation in drawing. Learning basic techniques: value, line, gesture, shading, perspetcing, & composition. Students will work with graphite charcoal and draw from still life and photographs.